among New York Giants Football History, is helping us count down to the final game along Giants Stadium. His latest paperback is "Quarterback Abstract." No. eight among our countdown of the 10 greatest moments as the Giants along the Meadowlands is a pick-six along Jason Sehorn within a playoff victory aboard Jan. seven 2001. In an extraordinary season among which Coach Jim Fassel guaranteed the Giants were going to the playoffs, they never only did that, they likewise secured home-field advantage along effecting the best disc in the N.F.C. in 2000. For their 1st postseason opponent, the Giants drew division rivals the Philadelphia Eagles, under the second-year adviser Andy Reid and the second-year quarterback Donovan McNabb. The Eagles came into this game fresh off a playoff victory over Tampa Bay, Philadelphia had lost eight direct games to the Giants over the previous four years. Although the game turned out to be a sloppy, defensive battle among which both teams turned the ball over three times, the Giants were surrounded control and among the guide from the first play of the game. Philadelphia kicked off, and the underachieving speedster Ron Dixon caught it by the three He traveled straight up the middle of the field, broke left along the 40 to avoid kicker David Akers and afterward sailed untouched to the end zone as a 97-yard touchdown and a 7-0 adviser 17 seconds into the game. The Giants would never need much extra While New York's guilt was stalled, the Eagles were completely ineffectual. The Giants' defense assigned defensive tackle Cornelius Griffin as a "spy" to follow the mobile McNabb's each move and the Eagles would only reserve the ball as 23 minutes. A second score came early surrounded the second 15 min when a grope along Eagle receiver Torrance Small led to a Brad Daluiso field goal. Then, surrounded the closing minutes of the duration Michael Strahan, who had two sacks on the day forced anew fumble within Eagle territory, but Tiki Barber fumbled the ball right back to Philadelphia aboard the 15. The Eagles managed a rare first down to set up the activity of the day McNabb dropped to pass, looking right the all period He fired an inexpensive sideline pass to Torrance Small aboard his knees. Sehorn literally jumped the pattern according diving among front of Small to catch the ball at the 32, merely it popped lax as Sehorn hit the floor He rolled over and batted the ball ahead as he rose to an knee and caught it. As Sehorn stood up by the 26, teammate Emmanuel McDaniels crashed into him and was knocked down, merely Sehorn took off, mowing inside Eagles tackle Jon Runyan by the 17 and beating McNabb to the edge of the annihilate zone as a 17-0 guide "As I popped it, it equitable hung there as a second, and I thought to myself, "Just work." It was a slow-motion thing where everything seemed to go," Sehorn told reporters Sehorn had four. three speed in the 40, and he was distinctive in the modern game a white cornerback. That absence paired with his stylish appealing looks was jump to fascinate media overexposure, barely injuries were his downfall. Over the years, leg ankle, hockey jerseys cheap, rib and knee problems caused Sehorn to miss 28 of 101 games after becoming a starter. Of highest significance, he tore his ACL and MCL within the 1998 preseason meantime trying out as a hit returner. It cost him the all season, and he was never quite the same player. This interception was the lofty point of his calling The Eagles managed a field goal to approach the 1st half and even scored a touchdown late among the fourth 15 min after blocking a hit But two big plays and a suffocating Giant defense ended the Eagles' playoff hopes For the Giants, their relatively unimpressive win contributed to their being dangerously underestimated as the N.F.C. title game against Minnesota a week after Reader Participation: Share your preference memories and moments by Giants Stadium among the comments section. We'll post some of them in a separate entry during the final week of the countdown. No. 10 aboard the Countdown was The Fumble. No. nine aboard the Countdown was Rodney's saunter.
